Re: Jim Murphy and Associates

To Whom It May Concern:

We at Creative Cabinets, Inc. would like to nominate Jim Murphy and Associates for their outstanding customer service and wholesome management team. We have worked with Jim Murphy and Associates for many years, and every project we have the opportunity to complete with them is a positive experience. Their operation is very organized which is an asset to have in this business, and has helped make them as successful as they are today.

Jim Murphy and Associates follows a very thorough job process. From the minute we receive an invitation to bid a project to the time we deliver our custom cabinetry, every detail big and small has been addressed. Their employees are very knowledgeable, courteous and passionate about what they do, which inspires us to continue our relationship with them.

The management at Jim Murphy and Associates has a determined drive to make their business successful. They show integrity and compassion for each job as an individual, and go the extra mile to make their customer very satisfied.

Again, we would like to nominate Jim Murphy and Associates for their customer service and management. It is always a pleasure to work with them.

Sincerely,

Steve Cameron
